The owners worked with art consultant Heather Marx to acquire works including Crystal Mess Pattern by Ken Fandell.

“To us, the drama of the house is in how it highlights the beauty of the setting,” says Chris. “We didn’t want the interior to compete with that, but enhance it. We wanted the interior to feel edited yet polished.” To lend a final layer to the space, art consultant Heather Marx of Heather Marx Art Advisory helped curate pieces by Ken Fandell and David Simpson.
